PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

LOWER HALL.

FINDING LIST FOR ALCOVES II, IX, XII, AND XIX.

HISTORY, POLITICS, ETC.

NOTE.—The Lower Library was opened to the Public, suitably arranged and with a printed Index, in the summer of 1858. During the eight years which have since elapsed, the books have been used to an extent quite unprecedented in similar institutions. Many books have been worn out, many badly abused, and many lost. The larger portion of these have been replaced, but numerous changes in the location of the books have been unavoidable. Eight Supplements to the Index have been printed. It has now become imperatively necessary that a thorough revision of the Library and a consolidation of the Indexes should be made, in order to continue to meet promptly the wants of the public.

It is felt to be worthy of a strenuous effort to perform these requisite labors so as to interfere the least possible with the circulation. To this end it is proposed, as the revision proceeds, to print for temporary use brief Finding Lists of the books, alcove by alcove. When the whole Library has been reorganized, a correct, consolidated Index can be prepared.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

PERIODICALS CURRENTLY RECEIVED;

AND

Works of Reference in the Reading Room and at the Desk in Bates Hall.

FIRST EDITION. SEPTEMBER, 1870.

NOTE. — Under the term "Periodicals," this List includes Reviews, Magazines, Journals, etc., and the issues — except mere reports — of learned societies and other bodies; but it does not include such publications, if they are not at this time regularly received as published; nor does it, as a rule, include the regular issues of public documents, or almanacs, books published serially, or the like.

Readers are requested to recommend for purchase such Periodicals and Works of Reference as the Library does not already have. Slips for this purpose will be furnished, on application, at the Desk. It must be borne in mind, however, that newspapers are not subscribed for, except in a few peculiar cases.

 Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth, — which applies to unbound periodicals as well as bound volumes, — and to the intention of the Library to prosecute under it: —

An Act for the preservation of books and other property belonging to public libraries.

Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue belonging to any law, town, city, or other public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for every such offence.

Approved March 16, 1867.

COPIES ARE FOR SALE AT THE DESK, AT FIVE CENTS EACH.

READING ROOM FOR PERIODICALS.

This Room, which is provided with seats for one hundred readers, is open from 9, A. M., to 0, P. M., throughout the year. It has by far the best collection of American and Foreign Periodicals in the country, and is amply furnished with Dictionaries, Gazetteers, Cyclopædias, and other books of reference, which are free of access to all.

Under the Regulations adopted to govern the use of the Library, "All persons above the age of fourteen years, of respectable character, and of such orderly conduct and condition as not to interfere with the occupations and comfort of others," are entitled to use the Reading Room for Periodicals.

When a Periodical is wanted, its name or box-number, together with the name and residence of the borrower, must be written on a slip of paper, — furnished for that purpose at the Desk, — and left with the attendant.

Every Periodical received from the attendant must be returned before the borrower leaves the Reading Room; and it must not be carried, without special permission of some officer of the Library, into any other part of the building.

Every Periodical, when returned, will be carefully examined by the attendant, who is required to report immediately any injury which it may have suffered.

Incomplete volumes of Periodicals are not allowed to be taken from the building, unless for urgent reasons, stated in writing to the Trustees, and upon their permission being granted. Bound volumes of Periodicals in the Bates Hall do not circulate except by permission of the Superintendent or his representative.

The books of reference at the Desk are to be consulted there, and returned to their proper places. It is not allowable to accumulate them on the tables.

All conversation, all avoidable noise, and unbecoming conduct of every kind, are strictly prohibited. The attendant is required to check every irregularity of the kind, and, if necessary, to make report thereof.

The attendant is not allowed to converse in this Room, except on Library business.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

PERIODICALS CURRENTLY RECEIVED.

EXPLANATIONS. — The number preceding its title denotes the box in the Reading Room in which a periodical is kept, while that following the title indicates the shelf number in the General Library. If no Reading Room number is given, the periodical is kept only on the shelves, and must be asked for in the proper Hall, and in the same way as other books are. Volumes on shelves numbered 2110 and upwards, are in the Bates Hall; on shelves below 2110, in the Lower Hall. — Two stars, prefixed to the shelf number, denote that the work was given on condition that it should not be taken from the Library-building. After the figures denoting the size of a periodical, indication is given of the frequency of publication; y. signifying yearly, ½*y.* half yearly, q. quarterly, 2*m.* bi-monthly, m. monthly, ½*m.* semi-monthly, w. weekly, ½*w.* semi-weekly, ⅓*w.* tri-weekly, d. daily, un. at uncertain intervals. — A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue.

THE READING ROOM AND AT THE DESK IN BATES HALL.

☞ R. R. means Reading Room; B. H., Bates Hall. In the columns under these headings, the letter before the dot signifies the range of shelves, and the figure after the dot the numerical position of the work on the shelf.— A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. — Initials inclosed within marks of parentheses stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Burke, Sir (J.) B.— 8°, 12°, 16°, etc., designate the form of a book, or the actual or probable fold of the sheet as shown by the signatures, and do not always indicate the size or shape of the bound volume. The epithets "large," "small," and "oblong," or the like, are sometimes added for the sake of greater precision.

THE TOSTI ENGRAVINGS.

PORTRAITS.

THE following List covers that portion of the collection of engravings made by the late Cardinal Tosti, of Rome, and given to this Library by Mr. Thomas G. Appleton, which consists of portraits; and it includes 676 prints. Some of the portraits are contained in that part of the collection which is in bound volumes, of which the titles or contents were printed in Bulletin No. 13. They may be known by the abbreviation "pl." followed in each case by the number of the plate and the location of the volume. Those numbers which have not this abbreviation prefixed, as 397 (see Aachen), represent framed portraits.

The entries are under the names of the subjects of the engravings, with cross-references from the names of painters and engravers, and in certain cases from those of the designers or draughtsmen.

THE TOSTI ENGRAVINGS.

In a note dated Rome, February 23d, 1869, addressed to the Trustees of the Library, Mr. Thomas G. Appleton wrote, "The late Cardinal Tosti was a great lover of art in Rome, and one of its most distinguished patrons. Under his fostering care, two distinguished engravers, Mercurj and Calamatta, rose to the head of their art in Paris. The effects of the Cardinal are now selling in Rome, and I have thought it desirable for our city, so poor in collections of engravings, that the Cardinal's collection should go to us. I have therefore bought and desire to present it to the Public Library of Boston, one of whose Trustees I was for some time, and in which I have always taken a lively interest. The number of the plates is about ten thousand, six hundred of which are framed. Among these are many of the most famous engravings, such as the 'Last Supper,' before the comma, of Raphael Morghen, and many other of his famous works. Presentation copies of all the works of the two famous protégés of the Cardinal, are also among them. The rest of the collection is in handsomely bound books, well adapted to the use of the Library, and far better for storing and preservation than if in portfolios."

Mr. Appleton added, that "the gentleman who is one of the Cardinal's heirs and his representative, desires, as a testimony of his respect and regard for the Library, to present a bust — an antique one — valued at two hundred scudi."

The Trustees, on the 24th of March, passed the following resolutions: —

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Public Library have received with great gratification the announcement by their townsman, Thos. G. Appleton, Esq., of his proposed munificent gift to this institution, of the collection of engravings formed by the late Cardinal Tosti, thereby laying a foundation for instruction in art highly needed, and useful in any community, but specially in our own, where works of this character are beyond the reach of the large class worthy to be benefited by their study.

Resolved, That the special thanks of the Trustees be communicated to Mr. Appleton, by the President of this Board.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Trustees of the Public Library be presented to Signor Alessandro Ceccarini, for his generous gift to the institution, of an antique bust.

The prints were received at the Library in October following, when it was discovered, that, owing to bad packing, the glass of all the frames had been broken on the voyage. Mr. Appleton promptly added to his already large expenditure, by ordering new glass. The framed pictures were at once disposed in such a manner as the capacity of the building admitted; and suitable cases and drawers were provided for the volumes and portfolios, for a considerable part of the collection proved to be preserved in that way.

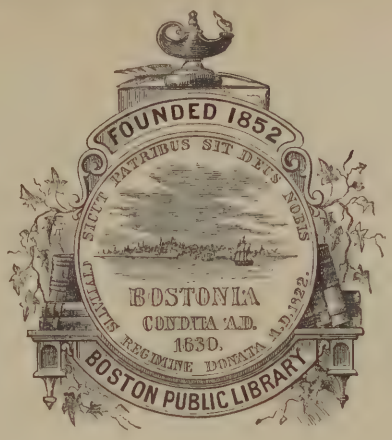
The previous owner of this collection, which, at the time of its purchase, was esteemed the finest in Rome, was the Cardinal (Antonio) Tosti, who died March 23, 1866, aged 90. He resided for a long time at Aventine. In 1834, he was made treasurer of the pontifical government, a post which he continued to hold for ten years, when he resigned it into the hands of Gregory XVI. He is regarded as founder of the industrial and artistic school in the Hospital of San Michele, of which institution he was director at the time of his death. He was buried in the church of St. Cecilia, Trastevere.



The cataloguing of the prints proceeded as fast as the other work of that department of the Library permitted, and in the Library Bulletin for April, 1870, a list of such as were in the 125 bound volumes of the collection was given, embracing in all almost 5,100 prints; and in the Bulletin for October the cross-references of the previous list were printed.

There were at that time still uncatalogued about 1,200 other prints, more than half of which were framed.

The present issue contains a list of all the portraits in the collection, whether in frames, in volumes, or loose, the larger part, however, being framed. The prints, not portraits, which are framed, number 282. These last, with such prints as are in portfolios, remain to be catalogued.

Regarding the entire collection, it may be said that its strength lies in the Italian school; and its groupings are rather indicative of the taste of its late owner than suggestive of any systematic growth, its development having doubtless been controlled in some degree by his opportunities. As patron of the school of San Michele, in Rome, he stood in intimate relations with two of its scholars, who gained eminence in the art of engraving,— Mercurj and Calamatta,—and he doubtless had their assistance in gathering, whence he could, specimens of their art, while they, furthermore, almost always furnished him with the earliest impressions of their numerous works. A distinctive feature of the collection is, beyond doubt, its portraits. Edelinck, Drevet, Nanteuil, and Schmidt, are here strongly represented. The earlier Italian masters will not be found to be well represented. There are no Marc Antonios, except a few of his fac-similes of Dürer. Of the latter's wood-cuts there are between twenty and thirty, large and small. There is little or nothing of his contemporaries or immediate successors. The English school is but slightly represented; and etchings, beside a volume of Salvator Rosa's and a few of Rembrandt's, are not numerous. The modern French school from Audran to Lelli is well set forth.

LIST OF BOOKS,

Arranged by Authors, Titles, and Subjects.

FIRST EDITION. FEBRUARY, 1871.

NOTE. — One volume at a time can be had in home use from this Branch, and one from the Bates Hall of the Main Library; and the Branch volume must always be returned at this Branch, accompanied by the applicant's library card, within such hours as the rules prescribe. No book can be taken from the Lower Hall of the Main Library, while the applicant has one from this branch.

Books can be kept out 14 days, but may be renewed within that time, by presenting a new slip with the card; after 14 days a fine of two cents for each day is incurred, and after 21 days the book will be sent for at the cost of the borrower, who cannot take another book until all charges are paid.

Books must not be lent out of the household of the borrower, nor be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and must remain in the Library one week before being drawn again in the same household.

Borrowers finding any book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; as also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

Consult the daily manuscript Bulletin and the printed Bulletins for recent additions to this department.

Recommend for purchase such books as the Library does not have, on slips provided at the desk.

NOTICE.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth: —

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence."

COPIES ARE FOR SALE AT THE DESK.

EXPLANATIONS.

Books are entered in the following List under the names of authors, when known; under the initials of the authors' names when these only appear, the last initial being put first; under the pseudonyms, or assumed names, of the writers, when the real names are not ascertained. Such books are also entered under their titles, followed by the names, initials, or pseudonyms of the authors. In the case of an anonymous work, the author of which is unknown, the entry is under the first word of the title, not an article.

In the headings of the titles, the names of authors are given in their vernacular form. French surnames preceded by Le, La, or L' are entered under L; by Du or Des, under D; by de or d', under the initial letter of the name following this prefix. In English names, the prefix is treated as a component part of the surname; as in De Quincey, Van Buren. In all other languages, surnames are entered under the letter which begins the name that follow the prefix.

Compound surnames are entered under the first part of the name.

British noblemen and ecclesiastical dignitaries are entered under their family names with cross-references from their titular appellations. All other noblemen are catalogued under their titles.

A single dash indicates the omission of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash, the omission of a subordinate heading. Initials inclosed within marks of parenthesis stand for Christian names which are not usually retained by the persons to whom they properly belong; as, Agassiz, L. (J. R.) In the headings of titles, the German diphthongs, ä, ö, ü, are written ae, oe, ue; Goethe occurs, for example, in alphabetical order before Goldsmith, instead of after it. An italicized name within marks of parenthesis following the name of an author is the pseudonym of such author; as Adams, W. T. (Oliver Optic.) Brackets, within titles, inclose words additional, or changed in form.

 Friends of the Public Library will assist in making future editions of this List more nearly perfect, if they will be kind enough to communicate to the Superintendent or the Librarian of this Branch the correction of any errors they may discover in it, the authorship of any works treated as anonymous, or the name of any person entered only under initials or under a pseudonym.

They are, therefore, all placed under the general head of Dramas, rather than under the names of the editors or publishers.
